GENEALOGICAL SEARCHES . . . .

Will be made on reasonable terms in the splendid and extensive collection of English and American Genealogical Works in the Library of Congress, and in the Public Records in Washington. Fifteen years' experience in this class of work enables me to do it thoroughly, expeditiously and satisfactorily. Exceptional facilities for establishing Proofs of Services in the Revolutionary War. Expert advice as to how to prosecute searches for genealogical information in England, after the data in the Library of Congress has been exhausted. I have access, in several libraries, to hundreds of works on English Heraldry, so that Seals, Coats of Arms, Etc., may be found and identified.

LYON G. TYLER, M. A., LL. D., EDITOR,

(President of William and Mary College.)

The Cradle of the Republic:

JAMESTOWN AND JAMES RIVER.

By LYON GARDINER TYLER, LL. D.,

PRESIDENT OF THE COLLEGE OF WILLIAM AND MARY,
WILLIAMSBURG, VIRGINIA.

Price, $1.50.

From the New York "Critic," November, 1900:

"In a volume entitled THE CRADLE OF THE REPUBLIC, Jamestown and along the James River, from its settlement to the Revolution, is described by Dr. Lyon G. Tyler, the President of William and Mary College. The region is, as every one knows, overflowing with historic interest, and Dr. Tyler is an enthusiast well fitted for the task in hand. Many of the pictures show the splendid homes from which came the heroes of the Revolution and of later times."

From the New York "Independent," October 25, 1900:

"Here is a book to gladden the hearts of those who like to gather up the scraps of local history pertaining to places of particular interest. The Island of Jamestown and the banks of James River offer excellent opportunities for this kind of historical work, which President Tyler is thoroughly fitted to do, and has here done to fascinating effect. Maps, pictures of old mansions and other landmarks, genealogy, sketches of important personages of early days, and indeed a panorama of people, places and events, make the book one of those monographs dear to all lovers of well sketched local colonial history."

From the Richmond "Dispatch":

"In this book and in the eight or ten volumes of the William and Mary Quarterly Magazine of History and Biography, of which President Tyler is editor and publisher, he has accomplished more for the preservation of materials for the history of Virginia than has been done through the efforts of any other single individual perhaps in this century, if we except Alexander Brown, of Nelson county, Virginia."

From the "Virginia Magazine of History and Biography," October, 1900:

"A study of this valuable work gives one for the first time a true idea of what the settlement was like."
